

CHRISTIAN AND MUSLIM RELATIONS

Bridging Intercultural Societies for Peace in Turbulent Times

STUDY WEEK
PROGRAM

GRANADA
(SPAIN)

JUN 30- JULY 6

Hochschule
für Philosophie
München

Universidad
LOYOLA

Université Saint-Joseph de Beyrouth

Philosophisch-Theologische Hochschule
SANKT GEORGEN

Co-funded by the European Union

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE | CONTACT: MARYAM BALLOUT

WHERE GRANADA

The history of Al-Andalus remains powerfully present both in the current Islamic imaginary and in the identity debates of Spain. That period has become a myth of a scientific, refined, and tolerant plural society. Islam dreams of Al-Andalus as a lost paradise. On the other hand, Europe grapples with how to integrate that history into its own and not consider it a history "of the others." That complex and diverse past, in its different stages, will certainly not return, but it can be a source of inspiration for thinking about the present of the new plural societies that extend on both shores of the Mediterranean. We intend to do this in this Study Week from an interreligious methodology.

MORE INFO ABOUT THE PROGRAM

WHEN SUN 30
JUN
STUDY
WEEK
SAT 06
JUL

GRANTS

The mobility can be covered by Erasmus funding

EXCURSIONS

ALHAMBRA
TRIP TO CORDOBA MOSQUE-CATHEDRAL
JEWISH QUARTER